ENTERTAINMENT AND TRAVEL PAGE

Benson & Hedges Blues And Rhythm Festival In Atlanta

The city of Atlanta, known for its musical talent, is one of the stops of the Benson & Hedges Blues and Rhythm Festival tour, beginning Thursday October 1 through October 27 and Nov. 7.

CHRIS WALKER

The music series features top blues and r & b artists in lunchtime performances, historic films, workshops, lectures, community festivals, club nights as well as headline concerts.

Some of the artists who have participated throughout the last four years include Ruth Brown. Nell Carter. Ray Charles B.B. King, Etta James, Delbert McClinton, the Staple Singers, among others.

The sponsor, Benson & Hedges plans to donate money to two charities working with the victims in Florida and Louisiana who were left homeless by Hurricane Andrew. A dollar from each ticket will be split between "We Will Rebuild" based in Dade County and "Second Harvester Food Bank," in New Orleans.

We Will Rebuild was announced by President Bush as an economic and homeless recovery task force last month.

Atlanta's events include:

CLUB NIGHTS

10/1 The Roxy Radiators & Evangeline

10/2 Pearl's Alyson Williams & Chris Walker

10/8 Blues Harbor John Campbell & Chris Whitley

10/9 Pearl's Will Downing featuring Marion Meadows

10/18 Int. Ballroom Eddie Palmieri/Seis Del Solar

10/20 Rupert's The Fabulous Thunderbirds & The Bluerunners

10/24 Rupert's Dr. John & the Dirty Brass Band

10/27 Sanctuary Toots & the Maytals & Boukman Eksperyans

HEADLINE CONCERT

11/7 Fox Theatre Gerald Levert, Regina Belle, Grover Washington, Jr. w/Lalah Hathaway

2040586648

Source: https://www.industrydocuments.ucsf.edu/docs/tzpn0004